I've registered, now what happens?

Before an election, you will receive a Polling Card by post. It will tell you when and where to vote.

Poll Card
BELFAST SOUTH

Bring your ID and Polling Card to the Polling Station. Staff are there to help if you need it.

Voting information
Polling day
Polling hours	7.00am - 10.00pm
Your polling station will be	ADDRESS OF POLLING STATION

At the Polling Station, staff will give you a Ballot Paper and tell you which numbered box to put your completed ballot in.

In UK General Elections (Parliamentary Elections) you will select one candidate by placing a "X" beside their name. Do not make any other marks on the Ballot Paper or your vote may be disqualified.

When you have made your selection, place your ballot paper in the box.

UK General Elections use the 'First Past The Post' voting system. This means that the candidate who receives the most votes wins. Every vote counts!

Voting by post or proxy

If you are registered to vote, but you are unable to attend your polling station on election day you can apply for an absent vote. There are two types of absent vote:

- Postal vote: Your ballot paper is posted to you before the election, you complete it and return it to the Electoral Office by post.
- Proxy Vote: You appoint someone to vote on your behalf. This should be someone you trust as they will attend the polling station and vote on your behalf.

You will find information on applying for an absent vote on the Electoral Office website:

<https://www.eoni.org.uk/Vote/Voting-by-post-or-proxy>

The deadline to register to apply to vote by post or by proxy in the 2024 election is 5pm on 14th June

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. I am an asylum seeker from a Commonwealth country - can I register to vote?

A. NO - Unfortunately the law has changed on this. Because you do not yet have leave to remain in the United Kingdom, you are not considered to be a 'qualifying Commonwealth citizen' for the purposes of voter registration.

Q. I am a refugee from a Commonwealth country - can I register to vote?

A. YES - you can vote in all UK elections because you have leave to remain.

Q. I am a refugee but I am NOT from a Commonwealth country - can I register to vote?

A. NO - You must be a citizen of an eligible country to be eligible to vote. If you choose to become a British citizen through naturalisation you will secure the right to vote.

Q. I have leave to enter or remain in the UK (e.g. Student Visa, Skilled Worker Visa, Spousal Visa etc) and I come from a Commonwealth country - can I vote?

A. YES - having any type of leave to remain or enter is acceptable.

Q. I have EUSS settled or pre-settled status - can I vote in a General Election?

A. NO - EU citizens are not eligible to vote in a UK General Election (except citizens of Malta and Cyprus). However you are eligible to vote in local Assembly and council elections.

Q. Is there anything else I need to know?

A. YES - When you join the electoral register, you may be called for jury service. This means you can be required to attend court as a member of a jury
